

Central Coast Business Womens Awards Nomination Form – Nominations close Friday 18th September 5.00pm -

Name of Nominee _____ Business Name _____

Email Address _____

Phone contact _____ Mobile _____

Women in Business Awards Categories – Please complete and fax to 43692001

- Vive Accounting Young Achiever Award - Entrants must be under to 30 years of age.
- Employee Disability Award - Entrants must have a recognised physical or mental disability.
- Apprentice/ Trainee of the Year Award- Entrants must be undertaking an apprenticeship or traineeship in 2009.
- Sole Trader Award - Entrant must currently operate as a sole trader.
- Small Business Company Award - Entrant must own a company of 1-5 employees.
- Medium Company Award - Entrant must own a company of 6-20 employees.
- Large Company Award - Entrant must own a company of 20 plus employees.
- Women in Manufacturing Award - Entrant must own a company operating in the manufacturing industry.
- Women in Community Award - Entrant must operate a community organisation or operate a business in a community service field.
- Gosford City & Wyong Shire Councils Women in Local Government Award - Entrant must work for Gosford City Council or Wyong Shire Council in a senior role or as a Councillor.
- Women in Health Award – Entrants must own a health related service business or be in a senior management position in a government health related department.
- Women in Tourism Award – Entrants must own a tourism related business.
- Koindah Waters Innovative Women Award – Entrants must own a business and demonstrate their use of innovation within their business.
- Indigenous Business Award – Entrants must own a business and be of indigenous background.
- Life Time Achievement Award - Entrants must have owned a business on the Central Coast for a minimum of twenty years to be considered for this category.

Central Coast Business Women of the Year – The Winners of all of the above categories with the exception of Categories 1, 2, 3 or 15 will go directly into the judging for the Central Coast Business Woman of the Year 2009.